What we need to consider when we plan for our English Language Learners...

Common Core State Standards

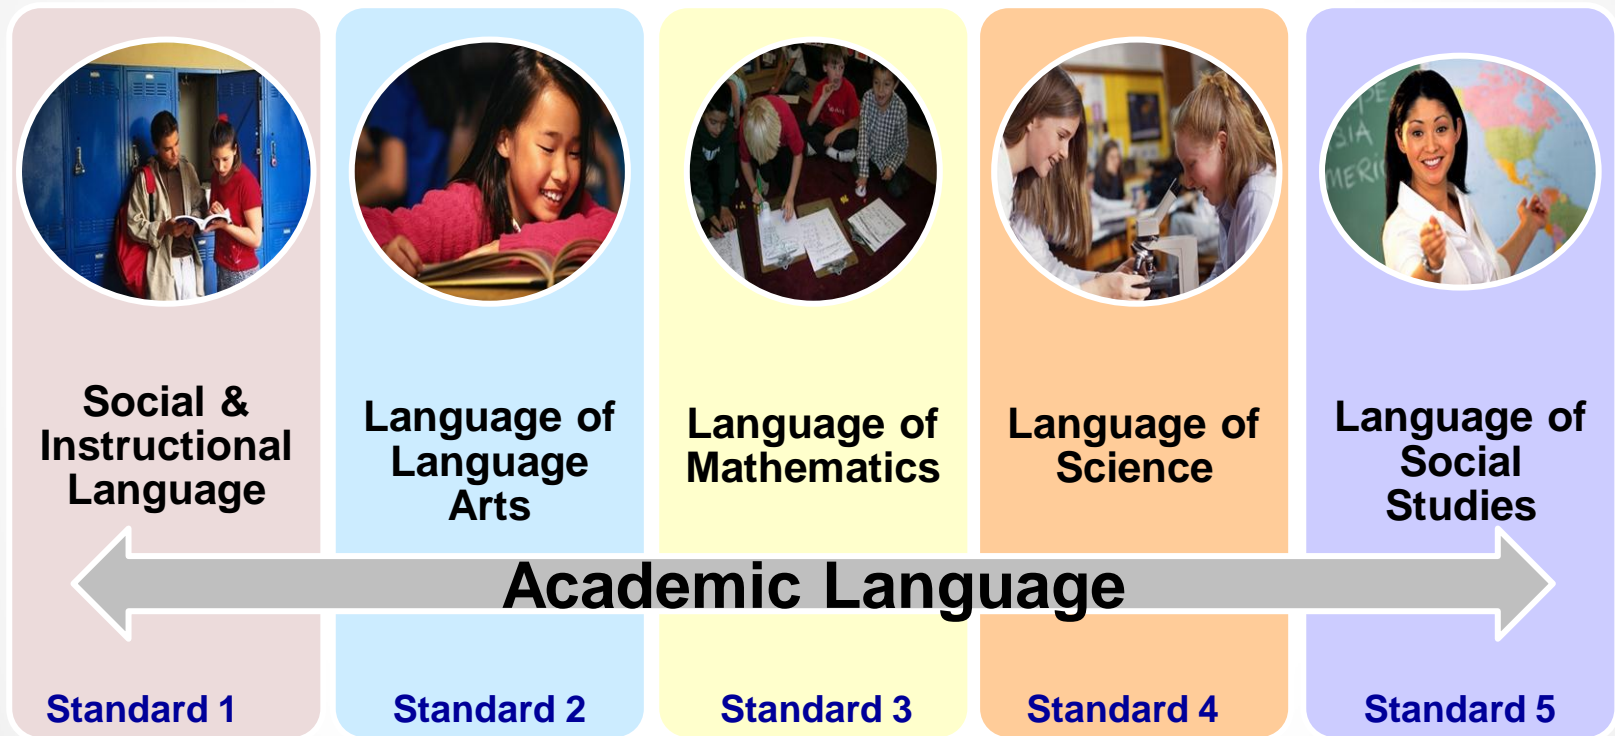

Anchor 3: People, Events & Ideas

Analyze how and why individuals, events, or ideas develop and interact over the course of a text.

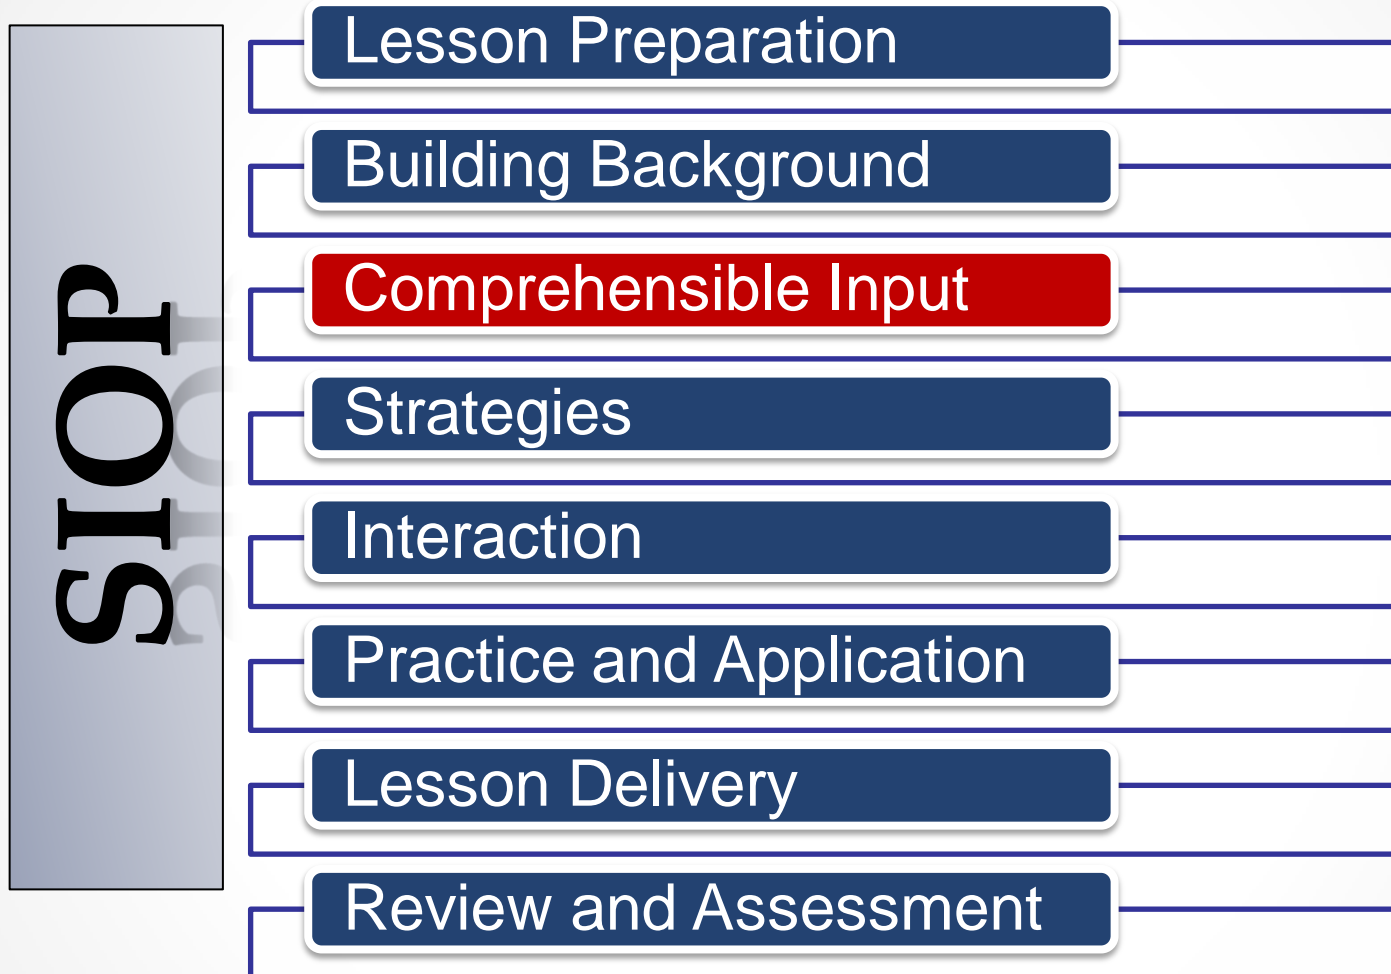

Anchor 4: Word Meaning and Choice

Interpret words and phrases as they are used in text, including determining technical, connotative, and figurative meanings, and analyze how specific word choices shape meaning or tone.

Cut-up Sentences

1. Write important sentences from text on sentence strips. Cut apart sentences—by word or phrases.

2. Have students reassemble sentences.

3. Let students try making their own— what is important. Groups exchange cut-up sentences and reassemble.

Let's try one—table work

The whole table stands when you are ready to share your sentence!

1. Schools in Syria have their classrooms being used as barracks for soldiers.
2. Many Syrians have become refugees, fleeing their homeland to escape the violence that has been caused by political unrest.
3. The conflict has hurt all Syrians, but the effect on children has been especially painful.
4. Most Syrian children are at a risk of not getting even basic education.
5. A refugee is someone who has been forced to leave a country because of war or for religious or political reasons.
